
H. A. Whaley, better known as "Uncle Harry," died at Stockton, Calif., on September 16 last, word has just reached this city in a private letter. Uncle Harry came to El Paso in 1881, and for years was bookkeeper for Mundy Bros. During the eighties he was known to nearly every man, woman and child in the city, and though a sufferer most of the time, he was noted for his cheerful disposition. Mr. Whaley was seventy-one years old.
