

-Mr. James H. White, of this city, this morning received intelligence of the death of his father, James C. White, at his home in Eastville, Va., on the 31st of August. The remains were placed in the family vault at Portsmouth. Mr. White's friends in this city, New Mexico, and throughout the state of Texas will be pained to hear of his bereavement and will extend to him their heartfelt sympathy.