

A. Q. Wingo died at Nuevo Leon, Mexico, on the 28 instant. Mr. Wingo owned considerable property in and around this city, and was formerly county surveyor. During the past two years he has been surveying for the Mexican government. He has a great many friends in this section.