

EL PASO TEACHER TAKEN BY DEATH

Mrs. Helen Witholder Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Helen Margaret Witholder, 1409 Montana St., died today at a local hospital after a short illness. She was 30.

Mrs. Witholder was the wife of Alfred H. Witholder, draftsman for the International Boundary Commission. She was the former Helen Margaret Pettinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pettinger, El Paso.

She was born and reared in El Paso. She was graduated from El Paso High School and the College of Mines. Later she attended the law school of Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tenn., and was admitted to the Texas Bar Assn. in 1929.

Mrs. Witholder taught in El Paso schools until November.

She was one of the organizers and an active member of the Omega Phi Delta Sorority of the College of Mines.

Funeral arrangements are pending with Kaster & Maxon Mortuary.
