

THE DEATH RECORD.

Henry Witholder, aged 62, died at his home at the corner of Tays and Third streets Saturday afternoon and was buried in the Evergreen Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon after funeral services at the church of Immaculate Conception. Mr. Witholder had been a resident of El Paso two years and has three sons working on the T. & P. railroad, two of them running out of this city. Antonio is an engineer and William a fireman on this division and Henry, Jr., is a fireman out of Big Springs. Mrs. Witholder is also sick and was unable to attend the funeral.