Woods to This City.

Accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Conger, the remains of the late Eulalia Victoria Woods arrived in El Paso Monday afternoon from Youngstown, Ohio, for interment in Evergreen cemetery.

Mrs. Woods, who formerly resided in El Paso, died suddenly last Friday in Youngstown, where she had been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. Conger.

Besides Mrs. Conger, Mrs. Woods leaves three other children, Mrs. R. E. McKee, of El Paso, and Charles Sidney Woods and Herbert Alfred Woods, also of El Paso. She also leaves two brothers, one in Chicago and one in New York and a mother and sister on the Isle of St. Croix, West Indies.

The funeral will be held from St. Clement's Episcopal church, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Fuller Swift officiating. Mrs. Woods was a member of that church and attended its services while residing here.

Mr. Conger and Miss Woods were married in El Paso early last spring and left soon thereafter for Youngstown, Ohio, where Mr. Conger is a salesman for the Trus-Con Steel company. Mrs. Woods joined them shortly after they located there. During the war Mr. Conger was stationed in El Paso as a first lieutenant in the motor transport corps and had charge of the recruiting drive put on here last October for men for overseas service.

Mrs. Conger while Miss Woods, was well known as a violinist and gave her services freely and often to play for the soldiers in camp near here.
