

E ● L
B
St.

RS
EANED

519
Myrtle Ave.

akes
ent?
DAY

vice M1611

hop

furnished without cost or obligation of any kind.

A. Little's Place Highly Popular

Little's Place, on the Alameda Road between Val Verde and Ascarate, is setting for many happy gatherings of El Pasoans and their families.

A. Little is the owner and "Bob" Hopkins is in charge of the kitchen. They feature a special 30-cent noon day luncheon and an evening dinner. Another popular dish at Little's Place is fried chicken for 25 cents. It consists of a fourth of a young valley spring chicken served with plenty of brown, crisp, French fried potatoes and toast. Patrons may be served in the dining room, at the bar, or in their own cars.

The Biggest

umns, and Paso. "We, glasses as we adopted bandannas.

Once a fa an accepted tume. Anof dence, too. glasses are They are l comfort as glare prote to ask for lenses. They fractionist a glasses for

The style always will that reason. L. T. Davis broadened prices so t benefits of and polished

Dr. Davis of fine gla