

he ly
v-

Lady Realtor

—Photo by Virden

Mrs. Avis Berry, above, assistant manager of the Five Points Realty Co., announces the removal last week of the company's offices from 818 to 1022 N. Piedras street.

"In our new offices we have availed ourselves of several advantages," said Mrs. Berry. "We have easy parking places in front of our offices, our office space is much larger and better arranged and we have increased our selling personnel.

"We have been established in the "5 Points" district two years and judging by the steadily growing volume of business which we are handling from month to month, we believe our choice of this location