

Miss Brigance, Former Local Resident, Dies

Word was received here Tuesday of the death of Miss Daisy Brigance, well-known former El Pasoan, Monday night in Honey Grove, Texas.

Miss Brigance will be buried at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday in Honey Grove.

A native of Honey Grove, Miss Brigance first came West to Roswell, N. M., then came to El Paso. Here she managed the Harper Method Shop for many years, was a charter member of El Paso Altrusa Club and was an active member of the Baptist church.

About 15 years ago, she became an invalid, but continued to make a living for herself through various ways. She left El Paso in 1942.

She is survived by two sisters, who live in Honey Grove and in California, respectively.
