

—M.G. McKinney collection

Old El Paso

This picture, taken about 1890, shows early construction in Sunset Heights. Arrow 1 points to the home of Jacob I. Smith, northwest corner of North Santa Fe and West Boulevard (now Yandell). This is the site of a 15-story office building that developer Chris Cummings wants to build. Arrow 2 points to Mesa Gardens, a recreation area at West Rio Grande and West Boulevard. The Diplomat Apartments are now on this site. Arrow 3 points to the home of Charles B. Stevens. Located there now is the architectural firm of Fouts, Gomez & Moore, 211 W. Yandell.

Old El Paso

This picture, taken about 1890, shows early construction in Sunset Heights. Arrow 1 points to the home of Jacob I. Smith, northwest corner of North Santa Fe and West Boulevard (now Yandell). This is the site of a 15-story office building that developer Chris Cummings wants to build. Arrow 2 points to Mesa Gardens, a recreation area at West Rio Grande and West Boulevard. The Diplomat Apartments are now on this site. Arrow 3 points to the home of Charles B. Stevens. Located there now is the architectural firm of Fouts, Gomez & Moore, 211 W. Yandell.

