

up No. 5 below.

3	4	5

LET
INI-HAHA
un for a short 5-11

30.00

(BOSTON)
NEW YORK
29.77
LOW ATLANTA
MIAMI

IN NEW YORK SNOW
OWERS AIR FLOW

ered tonight over Florida and along partly cloudy skies

er

Robert E. McNellis Funeral Scheduled

Rosary services for Robert E. McNellis, who died yesterday, will be held Monday at 8:30 p.m. in Martin Chapel. Funeral Mass will be at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, in All Saints Catholic Church. Rev. Francis J. Smith will officiate. Burial will be in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, under the direction of Martin Mortuary.

Mr. McNellis was 57. He had been a resident of El Paso 40 years. He lived at 2613 Wyoming avenue, and was a member of All Saints Catholic Church.

Survivors are his daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Collins, of Lordsburg, N.M.; Misses Beth, Patricia, Eileen, Kathy and Elaine McNellis, all of El Paso; four sons, Robert E. Jr., John, James, all of El Paso and Michael of Los Angeles. Also five grandchildren, his father, Robert E. McNellis Sr., of Nashville, Tenn., and a sister, Mrs. Virginia Trillo, Juarez.

To Show Film

price
Loun
street;
niture
street;
East Sa
Memor
Club ro
nue; 39
Tularos avenue
street.
Vehic

WV
Die

Oscar 1901 No
today a
He wa
War II shop.

Surviv
Mrs. S
ley, C Lillian and bro
old Cro and a nephew

Fune
today
Chapel, officiat